

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Wednesday, 12.01, Study Break: How to Make a Gingerbread House, 10 PM in the 1938 Lounge. Learn how to make a structurally sound house, suitable for all gingermen and gingerwomen in your own non-ginger KCECH house. Fun for all ages. Not fun for people who have allergies to ginger.

Thursday, 12.02, Must See TV, 8 PM in the TV Lounge. Sorta self-explanatory.

Thursday, 12.02, Finals Preparation Study Session, 7-7:45 PM in the Seminar Room. Come learn valuable skills to help you ace all of your tests.

Thursday, 12.02, PiH Presents: Come meet Anne Norton @ the Penn Humanities Forum (3619 Locust Walk), 7PM. Come meet Political Science Professor and Author of Leo Strauss and the Politics of American Empire. She will be talking about how a group of academics came to power in Washington and provided the philosophical justification for the war on Iraq. Interesting, ja?

Friday, 12.03, Adventure into K-Town brought to you by the lovely Yin Yin of KC3. Korean Restaurant and Karaoke. Meet in the lobby at 7 PM. Septa Tokens Provided, Around 10 bucks for dinner and $5 Karaoke fun.

Saturday, 12.04, TOUR of the University Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, Meet in the EH lobby at NOON. Prof. Janet Monge will lead us on a personal tour as well as give us a glimpse on her own work in human evolution. Light picnic lunch prior to the tour.

Monday, 12.06, Dinner Discussion with Poli Sci 101, Professor Nagel, 6-7 PM in the PDR. Come listen to this popular Professor discuss, what else? Political Science.

Wednesday, 12.08, Study Break: Decorate Chanukah Cookies 10PM in the 1938 Lounge. Hosted by your one and only KCECH Jewish Life Liaison Elizabeth Slavitt.

Thursday, 12.09, Dinner Discussion with Professor Max Mintz in the PDR. Be on the lookout for flyers. NOT TO MISS. And no explanation necessary.

Thursday, 12.09, PiH Film Showing of Reservoir Dogs, part of the "Violence in Film" Series. Be on the lookout for flyers around the house.

November/December 2004

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
28	29	30	1 Study Break: How to Make a Gingerbread House, 1938 Lounge @ 10 PM	2 Must See TV Thursdays Finals Study Prep Session PiH presents: Anne Norton	3 Adventure into Korea Town with KC3 RA Yin Yin!	4 Tour of the Univ. Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology
5	6 Dinner Discussion with Prof Nagel	7	8 Study Break, Decorate Chanukah Cookies, 10 PM @ 1938 Lounge	9 Dinner Discussion with Max Mintz PiH showing of Reservoir Dogs , part of "Violence in Film" series	10	11

MORE STUPID FACTS TO KNOW!

- » Tony the Tiger, cartoon mascot of Kellogg's Frosted Flakes since the early 1950s, was called "Tom-Tom the Tiger" in the island nation of Grenada.
- » Tourists visiting Iceland should know that tipping at a restaurant is considered an insult.
- » The name of the broken-down, partially blind old horse Ihabod Crane rode in Washington Irving's Legend of Sleepy Hollow was Gunpowder.
- » Turning a clock's hands counterclockwise while setting it is not necessarily harmful. It is only damaging when the timepiece contains a chiming mechanism.
- » The name of the camel on the Camel cigarettes pack is Old Joe.
- » Twenty kinds of kisses are described in the "Kama Sutra," the classical Indian text on eroticism.
- » The name of the first airplane flown at Kitty Hawk by the Wright Brothers, on December 17, 1903, was "Flyer." The maiden flight of Flyer, however, was less than a flight — the plane stayed in the air only 12 seconds. The brothers flew three more times that day, with their final flight covering 852 feet in 59 seconds.
- » Two chapters in the Bible, 2 Kings and Isaiah 37, are alike almost word for word.
- » The name of the legendary Lady Godiva's horse was Aethenoth.
- » Two million years ago, the first truly humanlike creatures appeared on Earth. They were called Homo habilis or "handy man."
- » The name of the statuette atop the hood of every Rolls Royce car is The Spirit of Ecstasy.
- » U.S. congressmen expressed surprise on learning in 1977 that it takes 15 months of instruction at the Pentagon's School of Music to turn out a bandleader, but merely 13 months to train a jet pilot.
- » The names of Popeye's four nephews are Pipeye, Peepeye, Pupeye, and Poopeye.
- » Undertakers report that human bodies do not deteriorate as quickly as they used to. The reason, they believe, is that the modern diet contains so many preservatives that these chemicals tend to prevent the body from decomposition too rapidly after death.
- » The names of the six Gummi bears are Gruffi, Cubbi, Tummi, Zummi, Sunni, and Grammi.
- » Until the nineteenth century, solid blocks of tea were used as money in Siberia. » The New York-to-Paris Cup is believed to be one of the largest sporting trophies ever made, weighing 1,600 pounds (725.7 kg).
- » Violins weigh under 16 ounces yet resist string tension of over 65 pounds.
- » The Nike "swoosh" logo was designed by University of Oregon student Carolyn Davidson in 1964 — four years after business undergrad Phil Knight and track coach Bill Bowerman founded the company they originally called Blue Ribbon Sports. Ms. Davidson was paid $35 dollars for her design.
- » The Nobel Peace Prize medal depicts three naked men with their hands on each other's shoulders.
- » We hear the sound of the seashore inside large seashells because the shell echoes surrounding sounds, jumbling and amplifying them.
- » The Number 1 selling postcard at the Art Institute of Chicago is A Sunday on La Grande Jatte, by Georges Seurat.
- » What is Canada's most valuable coin? Numismatists agree that the most valuable Canadian coin is the 1911 silver dollar, with a current estimated value of more than $1 million. Indeed, this coin is among the world's most valuable.