

Toilet Paper

Restaurant Week.

Inside this Tissue:

Restaurant Week	1
Annika's Jokes	1
Calendar of Events	2
Tonguetwister fun	2

Annika's Weak Jokes of the Week

What's hairy and coughs?

A coconut with a cold!

Why was the little broom late?

He overswept!

What a bottom at the top?

Your legs!

Where does the General keep his armies?

Up his sleeves!

(hahahahhahah)

Special Offer at Hoopla!
Buy any beverage from the CoffeeHouse 'til this Sunday the 30th, get a coupon that entitles u with a 25% discount on all drinks for the rest of the year.

This week, in the city of Philadelphia, has been heralded by Mayor Stephen Starr to be "Restaurant Week." It is the week when cheap boyfriends can treat their girl to something other than the Special Value menu at McDonalds, or when eating at any restaurant has become more routine than eating at Wawa. With a "prix fixe" of $30 for a 3 course meal at more than 2 fine dining establishments, why not treat yourself to something better than "Hot Open-faced Turkey Sandwiches and Tuna Melt" Wednesdays at our own dining hall? Here are some of the well known eateries in the city and what I think about them, because whatever I say has such an impact on how you will view things later on in life.

1: Buddakan - Stephen Starr's premier "Asian Fusion" restaurant. Asian -fusion, for people that do not know what type of cuisine this is, it's Asian food made just right for non-Asian folk, namely 29% of the people that live in this dorm. Nothing screams more Asian than when you're chewing on spring rolls, listening to bamboo windchimes, and sitting next to a huge-ass Buddha statue at this restaurant. Starr did his homework when he thought of this place because it is, in my opinion, his best. As an Asian person (despite my own efforts to disown my own ethnic heritage), I think it is just the perfect mix of Asian-ness before you start to randomly sing "I think I'm turning Japanese, I really think so."

2. Alma de Cuba- Spanish for "Alma of Cuba," this Walnut Street eatery is conveniently located next to an Urban Outfitters store for those who missed the opportunity to buy the "Fo Sheezy, I'm Wheezy" T-shirt at our own branch across the street. Calling it Modern Cuban cuisine, the fare has all the rhythm and jazz of the Buena Vista Social Club, minus the whole Fascist thing with Castro, with some added illicit qualities of a Cuban stogie. For those that think that Cuban food is equal to Mexican food, you're wrong. If it were, then they would've called it Modern Mexican Cuisine, retard. Anyways, this place is amazing. The atmosphere is great and the food is mind blowing. One of my friends saw Justin Timberlake and Cameron Diaz eating here one time. Since they were eating here, that must mean it's good!*

3. Le Bec Fin - Whenever you walk by this place, there's some old, power crazed fart sitting behind the desk with a buzzer in her wrinkly, diarrhea-stained hand to allow people to enter into the best restaurant in town. Oh yes, in French, Le Bec Fin translates into "Overly expensive so don't even try to think about coming in here without your dad." My friend went in there once with jeans, and they told him, a paying customer, to "hide his legs as much as possible." Given the prix fixe, this is the best bargain in town. You can now feel like that 80 yr old man with his 23 yr old wife you saw go into that establishment for only a fraction of the price. You have to go here at least once during your four years here. Or try to at least.

Ok well, I hope I inspired you to go to some places and help out the economy. 'Til next time.
Franky Lee
franky@wharton.upenn.edu
KCECH Communications Mgr.

*Famous people seen dining at some particular establishment does not necessarily mean that the food there is by any means good. Use caution when making crass assumptions.

January/February 2005

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Thurs 1.27- Tea Time Discussion 5pm in English House Rooftop Lounge, Meet Dr. Peter Dobson and hear him discuss his experience on integrating science and faith. Free tea and snacks.

Thurs, 1.27 - Charity DDR Tourney, 7 PM in the 1938 Lounge. Brought to you by Circle K and KCECH. Help raise money for the Make-A-Wish Foundation. $5 to enter, $3 to watch. Prizes include NBA tix, Chocolate Guy baskets, Gia Pronto, Paper garden, and a raffle is to be had as well. ALSO a Bloomers Performance.

Sat, 1.29-Monthly House Saturday Brunch. 1938 Lounge @ 11 PM, It's Hoagie Heaven Brunch. Free which means you don't have to walk to Hill. Hoagies, cereals, fresh fruit, and yogurt will be available.

Wed, 2.2 - Cookie Decorating Study Break: Name in itself is hopefully self-explanatory. Takes place in the 1938 Lounge

Fri, 2.4 - Penn Pm: Foreign Food and Film. TV lounge. Be on the lookout for flyers posted up for this event. Word on the street says that the movie and food are going to be Asian/martial artsy-fartsy

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
23	24	25	26 Coffee-house open for business-EH Rooftop Lounge	27 DDR Charity Tourney Tea Time Discussion	28	29 Monthly House Saturday Brunch
30	31	1	2 Study Break: Cookie Decorating	3	4 Penn PM: Foreign Food and Film	5

I bet you can't say this five times fast, doofus.

Betty Botter had some butter,
 "But," she said, "this butter's bitter.
 If I bake this bitter butter,
 it would make my batter bitter.
 But a bit of better butter--
that would make my batter better."

So she bought a bit of butter,
 better than her bitter butter,
 and she baked it in her batter,
 and the batter was not bitter.
 So 'twas better Betty Botter bought a bit of better butter.

Mr. See owned a saw.
 And Mr. Soar owned a seesaw.
 Now See's saw sawed Soar's seesaw
 Before Soar saw See,
 Which made Soar sore.
 Had Soar seen See's saw
 Before See sawed Soar's seesaw,
 See's saw would not have sawed
 Soar's seesaw.
 So See's saw sawed Soar's seesaw.
 But it was sad to see Soar so sore
 Just because See's saw sawed
 Soar's seesaw!

The Myth of Miss Muffet.

Greek Grapes.

Flash Message.

Pacific Lithograph.

Café de Colombia

Coffeehouse Now Open!
 EH Rooftop Lounge!
 Comfy Chairs!
 Drugs!

Open all days, except Fri

*Caffeine is a naturally occurring stimulant in the coffee plant.